IAPMO R&T Now Offers Plan Check Services

Ontario, CA (April 4, 2007) – IAPMO Research and Testing (R&T), a trusted leader in plumbing and mechanical product evaluation, now offers comprehensive plan check services.

The new service is a convenient, one-stop process for ensuring that plumbing, mechanical, structural, and fire plans are code-compliant. Plans can be checked according to the Uniform Codes or the International Codes.

“Inspectors and contractors have long relied on IAPMO R&T for our expertise and quality customer service,” said Hari Ramanathan, director of post-listing activities at IAPMO R&T. “Jurisdictions and building industry professionals can trust that plans submitted to R&T are meticulously checked to ensure strict conformity to all applicable codes.”

IAPMO R&T technical experts will work with clients during the plan review process to suggest appropriate corrections and expedite turnaround times. The personalized service is ideal for both small and large jurisdictions seeking fast, knowledgeable plan checks at a reasonable cost.

For more information, call IAPMO R&T at (909) 472-4112.
